Welcome,

In this document you will find all of the key points that Colette laid out in the 2nd video – Reversed Cards.

It's a great idea to refer to this document as often as you need until you get the hang of Reversed Cards.

REVERSED CARDS

Are you starting to get that sneaky suspicion that Oracle Cards might be just the thing you were searching for but didn't know you needed? I love to watch as a whole new world opens up to people when they start on this journey. It's literally magical! I feel so blessed to be able to introduce you to Oracle Cards as a powerful communication tool for a divine dialogue with Spirit, and always for your highest good. And the highest good of all.

Reversed cards are all part of the magic - they are a symbol of divine protection. Here's what I mean: imagine you are on a mission in your life, going after a goal, and say you met a guy - a gorgeous guy - a really gorgeous guy, and because he is so gorgeous you are completely blind to all of the red flags. Your Oracle Cards will protect you by telling you Mr. Right is actually Mr. Wrong. Or Mr. Right is actually Mr. Right now. Wouldn't you want to know that? Wouldn't you want to know that some higher force is protecting you?

Yes, that's how I want you to see them. Protection cards. Like your favorite friend that is so full of love for you that she will protect you from anything bad that comes your way. Spirit, Consciousness, the Dude, the Universe is on your side and it's talking to you through the cards. As much as it wants to show you all the beauty that lay ahead for you, it also wants to help protect you from disappointing situations. And reversed cards - they won't lie.

And that's what I love about the cards. Even when you make a choice that's

NOT in your highest good, they're a great course correction tool and it's never too late to take a risk and trust Spirit even when you're scared.

Reversed cards also act as guides to tell you when you haven't created an action to get success. Think of it this way, what if you're trying to get a job, but are missing a skill or your timing might be off? So a reversed card might simply be telling you that you won't get the job NOW because it's not the right time or you need to upgrade your skill. So the reversed card gives you an action step. Don't worry if a door doesn't open, it's not your door. The action step is to not worry. So don't sit around and brood saying 'the cards told me I won't get the job' when in fact the cards are saying a better one is coming in the perfect timing. The one that's meant for you.

Reversed cards

I want you to think of reversed cards like this: they are protectors of what's best for you. If you're walking along, and there's a pothole you don't see, they will nudge you to look down, so you walk around that pothole. Imagine getting to crossroads in your life. As you're looking in both directions, it's kind of nice to know it's not blind guessing. Pull a card, ask the 'right' question like I taught you in video one. What would be the result of me choosing X? If you get a reversed card, it's saying this is not a great option. But look deeper into it, read the meaning carefully, and maybe it's not a good option because you're not ready for it.

Another great thing reversed cards do is point out negative beliefs or negative patterns you may have. Sometimes we all act on autopilot and react in a way that doesn't serve us. Well, maybe it's time to change. You may be asking what's wrong with the other person, or expecting something from that person, and in fact the common denominator in the big issue is you.

So what have we learned about reversed cards? They're awesome. Bring 'em on in. Because, unless you're perfect, you'll never pull cards without the chance of getting a reversed card. And the beauty of that is that if you study them well, you'll see how they can guide you to that perfect situation or outcome in the highest good and form for you.

ACTION STEPS

Continue with your practice questions from the first video.

Notice that reversed cards will almost always show up eventually, if not right away. And that's perfect.

Look at your reversed card. It's asking you to do something. It's asking you to take an action.

CONCLUSION

Start wrapping your head around how one reversed card can influence your desired outcome, and maybe even prevent you from doing something that just isn't in your best interest.

If a reading clearly states that something is just not for your highest good, start looking at what part you play in your desire to want it:

How can you change your mindset and adjust an action so that you either achieve a positive outcome, or you drop it altogether and move on because that would be for your highest good?

PRACTICE QUESTIONS

Ask your Practice Questions

Start by saying, for my highest good, what is the result of _____?

When you get a reversed card, see it as an ACTION STEP.

What is it asking you to do?

By changing the action, what do you potentially see happening?

You can then do a reading... for my highest good, what is the result of me (taking action).

Have fun playing and I'll see you in Video 3: The Secret Sauce Of Working With Oracle Cards
